These are great programs for disability. They are government regulated and designed for disability as a whole. Long term TBI symptoms often make "traditional" employment difficult. We need more ways to find positions tailored to our skills and abilities.

WHAT IF YOU WORKED FOR YOURSELF?

What do you love to do? Are there ways to make money from it?

You can test your idea out before filing sole-proprietor paperwork

Sole Proprietor! That's a lot. Who can help me?

The Office of Disability Employment Resources can!

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

NeuroMaps Entrepreneurial Grant for Survivors of Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI)

Thank you for your interest in our Grant for TBI Survivors. Our founder, Christina Osheim, is a survivor of a TBI and has created her ceramic business and its grant funding arm, NeuroMaps, as a way to fund grants for small business owners who are also survivors of TBI.

To apply for this $500 Grant please supply the following:

1. Email tbi@mobiuskeramikk.com with your "Name_Grant Application" in the subject heading
2. In the body of the email give us Your Name, Business Name, business website and any social media profiles
3. Tell us in 250 words your TBI story (PDF format).
4. Write a proposal in one page (PDF format, maximum 500 words) telling us about your business and how your business would use/benefit from the grant money.
 - a. When did you start your business
 - b. What does your business do
 - c. How would your business benefit from or use the grant money
5. Include an image of yourself (.jpg format, max. image size 500mb)
6. If you are the chosen recipient of the grant please indicate if you are interested in or willing to provide us with a short video inside your business talking about what you will do with the grant money to share on our website and social media.

Grants will be awarded on a rolling basis each time our Grant Fund reaches $500. By submitting your grant application you accept that your name, business, image, and story can be used in promotional materials and on our website advertising the award recipients stories for future awards.

Recipients of the Grant must give an accounting of funds within 60 days of receipt.
